Impact of the New Leasing Standard (ASC 842)

- UTI adopted the new standard effective 10/1/19
- Key impacts
 - UTI’s 2020 assets increased for the addition of Right of Use assets less the prepaid rent.
 - UTI’s 2020 liabilities increased for the present value of the lease payments less the amounts of Deferred Rent and Incentives that remained.
 - The “build to suit” assets and related financing obligation have been de-recognized and are now included in the lease assets and lease liabilities.
 - Also for the ‘build to suit’ leases, interest expense on the financing obligation and depreciation and amortization of the assets will now be reported as lease expense resulting in an increase in operating expenses and a decrease in operating income and EBITDA.

Tax Provisions and Impacts

NOL Impact to UTI

- For Q2, we booked an income tax benefit of $10.8M
 - $4.1M related to 2018 tax year losses that will be carried back to 2017 and 2016
 - $6.7M related to 2019 tax year losses that will be carried back to 2015 and 2014
 - Application for $4.1M in tax refund filed in April, expect to file for $6.7M tax refund in June
 - Assuming timely processing by IRS, cash refunds should be received in fiscal 2020

Payroll Tax Deferral Impact to UTI

- The provision allows employers to defer payment of the employer share of the Social Security tax. The provision requires that the deferred employment tax be paid over the following two years, with half of the amount required to be paid by December 31, 2021 and the other half by December 31, 2022.
- UTI will use this provision which will increase cash by ~$1.5-$2M/quarter from Q3 FY20 through Q1 FY21

Employee Retention Credit (ERC) Impact to UTI

- The ERC is a fully refundable tax credit for employers equal to 50 percent of qualified wages (including allocable qualified health plan expenses) that Eligible Employers pay their employees. The ERC applies to qualified wages paid after March 12, 2020, and before January 1, 2021.
- The maximum amount of qualified wages taken into account with respect to each employee for all calendar quarters is $10,000, so that the maximum credit for qualified wages paid to any employee is $5,000.
- IRS issued significantly enhanced guidelines on April 29, 2020
- We are exploring compensation costs that may be eligible given the enhanced guidelines

Use of Non-GAAP Financial Information

This presentation contains non-GAAP (Generally Accepted Accounting Principles) financial measures, which are intended to supplement, but not substitute for, the most directly comparable GAAP measures. Management chooses to disclose to investors these non-GAAP financial measures because they provide an additional analytical tool to clarify the results from operations and help to identify underlying trends. Additionally, such measures help compare the company's performance on a consistent basis across time periods. Management defines EBITDA as net income (loss) before interest expense, interest income, income taxes, depreciation, amortization. Management defines adjusted EBITDA as net income (loss) before interest expense, interest income, income taxes, depreciation, amortization and adjusted for items not considered as part of the company's normal recurring operations. Management defines adjusted operating income (loss) as income (loss) from operations, adjusted for items that affect trends in underlying performance from year to year and are not considered normal recurring cash operating expenses. Management defines adjusted free cash flow as net cash provided by (used in) operating activities less capital expenditures, adjusted for items not considered as part of the company's normal recurring operations. Management chooses to disclose any campus adjustments as direct costs (net of any corporate allocations). Management utilizes adjusted figures as performance measures internally for operating decisions, strategic planning, annual budgeting and forecasting. For the periods presented, this includes consulting fees incurred as part of the company's transformation initiative, severance costs related to our CEO transition, start up costs related to the Bloomfield, NJ campus, and the teachout and closure of the Norwood, MA campus.. To obtain a complete understanding of the company's performance, these measures should be examined in connection with net income (loss), operating income (loss) and net cash provided by (used in) operating activities, determined in accordance with GAAP, as presented in the financial statements and notes thereto included in the annual and quarterly filings with the Securities and Exchange Commission. Since the items excluded from these measures are significant components in understanding and assessing financial performance under GAAP, these measures should not be considered to be an alternative to net income (loss), operating income (loss) or net cash provided by (used in) operating activities as a measure of the company's operating performance or liquidity. Exclusion of items in the non-GAAP presentation should not be construed as an inference that these items are unusual, infrequent or non-recurring. Other companies, including other companies in the education industry, may calculate non-GAAP financial measures differently than UTI does, limiting their usefulness as a comparative measure across companies. A reconciliation of the historical non-GAAP financial measures to the most directly comparable GAAP measures is included in the following slides.

Information reconciling forward-looking adjusted EBITDA, adjusted operating income and adjusted free cash flow to the most directly comparable GAAP financial measure is unavailable to the company without unreasonable effort. The company is not able to provide a quantitative reconciliation of adjusted EBITDA, adjusted operating income or adjusted free cash flow to the most directly comparable GAAP financial measure because certain items required for such reconciliation are uncertain, outside of the company's control and/or cannot be reasonably predicted, including but not limited to the provision for (benefit from) income taxes. Preparation of such reconciliation would require a forward-looking statement of income and statement of cash flows prepared in accordance with GAAP, and such forward-looking financial statements are unavailable to the company without unreasonable effort.
