

Universal Technical Institute Appoints David Blaszkiewicz to its Board of Directors

SCOTTSDALE, Ariz., Dec. 14, 2011 /PRNewswire/ -- Universal Technical Institute, Inc. (NYSE: UTI), a provider of technical education training, today announced the appointment of David Blaszkiewicz, to its Board of Directors. Mr. Blaszkiewicz will serve on the compensation committee and with his addition the Board will have ten members.

Mr. Blaszkiewicz currently serves a dual role as President of Invest Detroit, and President and Chief Executive Officer of Downtown Detroit Partnership. He leads the organizations' economic and revitalization efforts and works closely with the public, private and philanthropic sectors to develop partnerships and strategic plans to support community initiatives and job creation. Prior to his current positions, Mr. Blaszkiewicz served as President of the Detroit Investment Fund, which is now a part of Invest Detroit. He has more than 20 years of leadership experience in the Detroit business community.

Mr. Blaszkiewicz is an alumnus of both Michigan State University, where he earned his Masters of Business Administration and Wayne State University, where he earned his Bachelor of Science in business.

"David is a wonderful addition to our Board of Directors," said Kimberly McWaters, chief executive officer of UTI. "His deep ties within the Detroit business community and his expertise in managing the complexities of municipal growth and revitalization efforts provide a unique set of experiences and capabilities that will benefit UTI."

"I am very pleased that David has agreed to join our Board," said John C. White, chairman of the Company's Board of Directors. "We are fortunate to add someone with David's demonstrated success in providing the broad strategic thinking and executive management skills needed to bring long term business development projects to fruition. We look forward to his contributions."
