

MileOne Autogroup joins Universal Technical Institute's Early Employment Program at Exton and Mooresville Campuses

Paid work experience available to automotive program students, tuition reimbursement to employed graduates

MOORESVILLE, N.C. and EXTON, Pa., March 13, 2024 /PRNewswire/ -- Universal Technical Institute today announced the addition of MileOne Autogroup \(MileOne\) to its early employment program at the Exton \(Pa.\) and Mooresville \(N.C.\) campuses. Universal Technical Institute is the transportation, skilled trades and energy education division of UTI, Inc.

Through this agreement, selected UTI-Exton and NASCAR Tech students enrolled in the automotive technology program can work 20-30 paid hours weekly as part of the Early Employment Program. Early Employment participants who remain at MileOne after graduation will be eligible for incentives, including up to $350 in monthly tuition reimbursement and their tool incentive program.

"We are focused on helping our students begin rewarding careers in in-demand fields. This partnership with MileOne helps equip our students with the workplace knowledge needed for today's evolving workforce," commented Steve McElfresh, UTI-Exton campus president.

Robert Kessler, NASCAR Tech campus president, and regional vice president agreed, "We're proud to partner with MileOne to expand our Early Employment Program and help our students begin their path toward rewarding careers in school and after they graduate."

As the largest automotive sales and service delivery network in the Mid-Atlantic area, MileOne Autogroup represents 66 franchises with 24 automotive brands along with 48 service centers in Delaware, Maryland, Pennsylvania, Virginia, and North Carolina as part of the Hall, Heritage, Herb Gordon, Annapolis, and MotorWorld divisions.

"We have several MileOne locations near the UTI-Exton and NASCAR Tech campuses. We look forward to working with the students and helping them gain real-world work experience with the potential to join the MileOne family after graduation," commented Courtney Zacharias, director of talent acquisition, at MileOne Autogroup.

The U.S. Bureau of Labor Statistics estimates there will be 67,700 annual job openings for automotive service technicians and mechanics through 2032.¹ For more information on UTI's programs, please visit <https://www.uti.edu/programs>.
